Homecoming 1974 was held October 18. The pregame parade consisted of the Hicks ville High School Band, the class floats, Queen Pam and her court.

The floats were judged by various people chosen by the student court. First place was captured by the freshman class of 1978. The sophomores' float won second place while the juniors received third and seniors respectively.

The parade proceeded to the football field to begin the Homecoming ceremonies. Freshman attendant Mary Lou Whonsetler was escorted by Rod Vanderstelt. Evan Cottrell escorted sophomore attendant Tracy Termains. Representing the juniors was Anne Wyatt, escorted by Ron Cottrell. Diane Guilford was the senior attendant, escorted by Mack Pocratsky. Pam Zimmerman, the 1974 Queen, was escorted onto the field by Kevin Kreg. The queen was crowned and gave her speech. She presented the game ball to Kevin and the football team.

The 1974 Homecoming festivities were concluded by a dance held at the grade school following the game. The dance featured the group "Chrome."

Cast of Ten Little Indians

Junior Class presented Agatha Christie's classic murder mystery "Ten Little Indians" under the direction of Mr. Tom Sprague, April 25, 26

The play starts seemingly innocent enough when eight strangers come together, by invitation to spend their summer holiday on an island guesthouse off the coast of Devon, England. A telegram has been sent by the host and hostess informing the house party that they will not arrive until the next day.

However, before the guests can become too settled a strange voice, out of nowhere, accuses each person there with the murder of someone out of his or her past.

Next the group is informed that no one there, including the housekeepers or the secretary, have met the hosts. Almost immediately one guest, a spoiled young man of great wealth, is poisoned and dies in the midst of everyone.

Then one by one the accused guests begin to die. Hunting the unknown murderer, the guests search the island and find no one else. But there is something much more complicated in these murders than meets the eye. They all seem to fit in with the "Ten Little Indians" nursery rhyme that is hung above the fireplace.

Senior Citizens Watch Dress Rehearsal Free

Okla. Land was presented on the night of May 19, 1963 at the Muskogee High School. The performance began at 7:30 p.m. On May 18, a dress rehearsal was held and senior citizens were invited to come and watch it free. The cast was divided into two since there were so many that wanted to participate. The cast in order of appearance:

Aunt Eller — Diane Gaultford, Chris Slattery
 Curly — Joel Taylor
 Laurey — Janie Hayes, Jean Meyer
 Ike Skidmore — Duane Klepper
 Fred — Jim Kline
 Slim — Ken Miller
 Will Parker — Keith Countryman, Jim Volkert
 Jud Fry — Russ Hampson
 Ado Annie — Robin Adcock, Karen Burns
 Ali Hakim — Robb Holt
 Gertie Cummings — Stephanie Leonard, Cindy Repp
 Andrew Carnes — Steve Dowell
 Cord Elam — Rick Mettert

In addition there are several other parts, such as the dancers and the Dream Ballet, danced by Brenda Parker as Laurey, Bruce Essex as Curly, Tom Ridgway and Rick Mettert as Jud.

Costume graphics was provided by Mr. Frank Daugherty, Miss Jane Ewing, and Pam Zimmerman. Mr. Larry Kenner and Mr. Larry Dill directed the orchestra. Mr. Ron Eak was the Musical Director. Mr. Tim Sprague, Technical Director. Mrs. Alice Langsworth directed the musical and Lana Smith was Student Director.

Accompanists were Miss Barb Lander, Mrs. Lois Vanderstelt, Mrs. Lela Ewing and Miss Ricki Slattery.

The cast was responsible for their costumes and the surrey is the property of Mr. Raber. It was the same one that was used in the production of OKLAHOMA in 1963.

OKLAHOMA is a musical which is set on a farm in the territory of Oklahoma and is peopled with cowboys, farmers, and their wives and sweethearts.

A lovely story of love, dreams and happiness, the early settlers generally sprinkled with many of Rodgers and Hammerstein's beautiful songs including "Oh What a Beautiful Morning" and "Surrey With the Fringe on Top."

Will and Cord Elam watch as Curly and Laurey step into the surrey with the fringe on the top as the musical comes to an end.

Concert Band Is Heard Over Radio

French horns practice in anticipation of contest

Hicksville High School Band presented on Dec. 17 a Christmas Concert that was broadcast over Radio Station WIFF on Christmas Day.

On Dec. 21 Diane Guilford, Dennis Durre, Cheryl Conley and Barb Linder played their saxophones for the Crippled Children at a Christmas Dinner held at the American Legion Building.

On March 13 the band held a concert for the student body as their part in the nationwide observance of "Music in our Schools Day."

John Bailey on the saxophone and Brenda Parker on the bass clarinet were seniors who joined the concert band for the first time.

March 22 proved to be a successful day for the band as they received an excellent rating at band contest. It was held at Anthony Wayne High School.

The band's last concert was held April 20 and it honored all the seniors.

Marching Aces show good form on the field

Hicksville High School Marching Aces had a busy season beginning this past summer.

HHS band's parades took quite a lot of time during the summer. At Grabill they took first place. They also marched at Paulding, Payne Puckerbrush Party, Antwerp Fire Days, Auburn, Defiance County Fair Parade Bands, Wauson Homecoming, Harlan Days.

Marching Aces performed at all the homecoming games, led by head Majorette Sallie Street. Pom-pom girls led by Laura Meyer added color and variety to the performances.

Twenty seniors made up the 1975 Hixonian staff advised by Mrs. Margaret McAdams.

Preparing copy, designing layouts and meeting deadlines kept the staff busy. Photographer Robb Holt was always on the run taking pictures of various activities around the school.

Co-Editors Sue Barkman, Rick Mettert and Diane Guilford attended a one week yearbook workshop at Morehead Univ., Morehead, Kentucky during the summer. They were able to catch up on the latest trends and ideas for the yearbook design. During this week the cover was designed and the division pages were planned.

During the early part of the school year, the entire staff attended a one-day yearbook clinic at Napoleon.

Deb Keller, represented the yearbook staff at 4-Co. by taking the pictures for that section and getting copy.

The theme was taken from the Senior Class Song "We May Never Pass This Way Again."

Holgate Loss

Girls' Interscholastic Association, a new concept in sports for girls, began this year with volleyball.

Competing with other schools in team efforts both on varsity and reserve levels the sporting girls posted a 9 win — 3 loss over all tally for the season.

In Greenmeadow Conference Tournament action, the team came home with Runner-Up Honors, Chris Slattery and Kathy Thornburg were voted on the First Team, Sharon Snyder, the Second Team and Kathy Kates, and Eileen Teitz received Honorable Mentions.

Head mentor for the GIA this year was Mrs. Jean Siler.

Junior High varsity cheerleaders were devoted to their team as they cheered them to a nearly perfect season.

Junior High Cheerleaders sold tootsie-roll pops during the high school Varsity and Reserve basketball games, as well as their own. Also during home games coat checks were operated by the girls.

This aided the High School Cheerleaders to raise money for the cheerleading fund, which was used for summer camp and minor miscellaneous items.

With not much experience under their belts the young gridders faced a bitter season. Finishing with a 0 and 5 record seems discouraging, but the Junior High Aces are anxious for next season to arrive. Coaches this year were Bill Shepard and Tom Sprague.

Under the direction of Coach Scott Cromwell the Freshmen had a good season posting a 3 and 1 record. Two shutouts were included in this year's play with each player itching to break into J.V. and Varsity rank next year.

Even though Coach Cromwell started the season with only a seven member team, each week proved better as more players turned out for practice. At the season's close, 18 men filled out a fine team and a fine record.

This year the freshman cheerleaders performed many duties. With team captain Mary Lou Whonseler, the girls worked the concession stand at football games, made hoops for the players to run through, sold suckers, buttons, and ribbons.

During the summer, they represented HHS in an open division in the National competition and competed at the County Fair as the youngest team.

Besides doing all these extra activities, the cheerleaders performed their usual duties of making signs and raising team spirit by supporting the team on to a very successful season.

Decade Gone By —

The 1974 Aces extended their unbeaten streak to 10 games, finishing at a 8-0-1 clip. The only damper on the fine schedule was a 7-7 tie to rival Fairview. Once again the mighty Aces captured the NWBL title as co-champions with Fairview at a 4-1 record. They capped their season finale with an exciting 14-8 triumph over Paulding.

as Two Advance to District

Tim Brown cheers on as another victory is recorded by an Ace grappler.

Varsity Wrestling team garnered a successful season, being such a young, but promising sport.

Finishing with a 5-2 record, the Aces posted wins over Haltop, Aversville, Paulding and Stryker twice.

Finishing fourth in the Buckeye Border Conference was a great accomplishment as it is one of the tougher conferences to compete in.

Coach Shepard and his ass't Mr. Dull did a fine job in each of their first seasons as coaches.

Along with the help of two Detiance College wrestlers, the Aces' grapplers gained valuable experience during the season.

Team support was given by the Ace-ettes, a group of girls used as cheerleaders, statisticians. This was the first year for this group.

It's a game the Utah Jazz have won 12 times in 14 seasons and it's a record the Washington Wizards have won 24 points in 25 seasons scored only 537 points.

Under the supervision of John Fast, the Junior High Varsity brought home the first Green Meadows Conference Trophy in eleven years.

Kacee Craig to State

This season marked the beginning of GIA track at Hicksville. Many girls participated and this added to a successful year.

After the regular season Kacee Craig, Lori Kreg, Lori Lucas, Diane Guilford, Annette Mackling and Chris Slattery advanced to the district track meet held in Findlay. New records were set by these girls, in the 440 relay, hurdles and long jump. Junior Kacee Craig qualified for state finals held May 31 in the long jump and hurdles.

There she placed 6th in the State for the long jump.

Kacee did not place in hurdles but her district time is recognized as 2nd best time in the state.

This summer the varsity cheerleaders went to camp and came home with many honors. Kacey Craig placed 1st in individual competition and the scrapbook placed 1st, also. There were other major awards received, too.

With team co-captains Susan Whonsetler and Pam Zimmerman the squad went to National competition in August at Lansing, Michigan. There the Scrapbook took first in the nation and Kacey Craig brought home fourth.

This year there was a new addition to the squad — male cheerleaders to help with mounts. This was a major addition to the team and gave much of a lift to the players.

The reserve cheerleaders were busy, too. Under the captainship of Janie Hayes, the girls went to camp and accompanied the varsity squad at the Nationals. They also helped make signs, cheer during varsity and reserve games, sell suckers, help with coat checks and run the concession stands.

1975-76 O.J.C.L. President Is Joel Taylor

Maximilian Parasek

Among President Taylor's duties will be to head the State Convention and to choose a list of month earners.

Officers for the 1975-'74 Junior Classical League were: President Joel Taylor, Vice President Rhonda Fritz, Secretary Treasurer Michelle Panasuk, and Reporter Cheryl Hanna. Meetings were held the first Tuesday of every month.

KCL Club had a very busy and active year. The first activity was initiation of freshmen members. The freshmen all breathed a sigh of relief when this was finally over.

Other activities included Saturnalia — the annual Christmas party. A gift exchange and games took place along with the crowning of King Mitch Panasuk, Queen Lana Smith, Prince Ken Speed, and Princess Nancy Applegate. The club also sponsored the WOWO Penny Pitch and took gifts to Fountain Manor.

In February everyone helped to make Valentines for the Rest Home patients. March brought the highlight of the entire year -- Latin Convention, held in Columbus, Ohio. The club entered in many contests. Mrs. McAdams and Robb Holt were in charge of the Quiz Bowl. Due to icy roads and snow the entire club could not attend, but despite this the convention still turned out a success. Joel Taylor ran for President and was elected for the 1975-76 year. This was the highest office of the entire Convention.

The club was also informed that the paper that was published by Robb Holt received a first-place ribbon during the summer at National Convention.

The year was brought to a close by the Roman Banquet, held in May. The incoming Latin freshmen served the meal with everyone dressed in Roman style.

Under the direction of Mrs. Shari Miller the Spanish Club proved interesting for the year 1974-75.

Moneymaking projects included car washes, bake sales, the sales of Rex All Purpose Cleaner and Reese Cups.

Seniors Laura Meyer, Barb Linder, Carol Tonnesen, Dolores Camp and eleven other students took a trip to Mexico sponsored by the Hicksville and Edgerton High Schools. To raise money for the trip, they performed various jobs.

To highlight the year, Brenda Speiser and Kay McGough were selected as winners of the scholarship to Mexico. The annual banquet was held at the end of the year.

Officers for the year were President: Barb Linder, V. President: Rick Mettert, Secretary: Lynette Wittig, Treasurer: Kay Handy, Photographer: Guy Mackling and Reporter: Mary Lou Whonsetler.

Home Ec Prepares Girls for the Future

HOME EC CLUB ROW 1 Cindy Timbrook, Becky Ludeman, Peggy Seultz, Marina Ariza, Anna Fuentes, Trudi Simpkins, Dorinda Russell, Hope Fuentes, Advisor — Mrs. Miller

Regular meeting night for the Home Ec Club this year was the first Tuesday of each month at 7:00.

Goals set for the members included self-improvement, school service and community service.

In their self-improvement program, all forms of cancer and health precautions were discussed with emphasis on breast cancer for women.

One of their community projects was to canvas Precinct A for the cancer drive.

Social affairs for the year included Christmas dessert and gift exchange.

Volunteers Contribute to Community

This year, the Volunteers elected Cindy Cline as president. With the help of Miss Harriet Bice as advisor, the group consisting of 11 new members helped at blood banks, the hospital and Fountain Manor. They also took up a contribution to the memorial fund for Mr. Schmuck, Director of Excellence Red Cross, who passed away in April.

Other activities consisted of making new uniforms and helping with FISH papers.

There are 5 out-of-town members and students from the high school, and Junior High. Help at Fountain Manor started in April. A new program was begun so that junior high student council work at the hospital.

The group put in a total of 288 hours from September through April.

Art Club Makes Football Helmet Wall Plaques

Advised by Mr. Tom Sprague, Art Club organized a new club constitution. The main club project was to sell wall plaque football helmets.

These helmets, made in class, were a step by step procedure. They were sold for $3.50 with mirrors and $3.00 without.

Officers for the year were President, John Bailey; Vice-President, Karen Burns; Secretary, Cora Mock.

Officers for the 1974-75 GAA were President, Chris Slattery; Vice-President, Eileen Tietz, and Secretary-Treasurer, Kathy Kares.

GAA was active in many sports this year. There were basketball and volleyball intramurals and a bowling tournament at Defiance in which they received first place.

A Halloween party was held at Chris Slattery's house. There was a scavenger hunt and a weiner roast. Freshmen initiation was also held that night. All Freshmen members had to dress up in costumes.

A banquet was held at the end of the year at which the queen and her attendants were announced.

NHS Sends Mouse to College

National Honor Society announced 21 new members during their induction ceremony on April 10. Mr. Robert Breisinger, principal of Fairview High School, was the guest speaker. The student body attended the ceremony and parents were invited.

In order to be considered for NHS a student had to have at least a 3.25 point average. The students were then evaluated on a point basis by teachers who had them in class and by members of the society who knew them. These point evaluations were averaged and considered, along with participation in clubs and service groups, by the committee of faculty members who made the final selection.

For a community service the society sponsored the "Send a Mouse to College" fund drive of the American Cancer Society. Members took contributions during the lunch hour on April 24-29.

Officers for 1974-75 were President: Anne Kirby; Vice-President: Dick Altman; Secretary: Judie Bruggeman; Treasurer: Laura Meyer.

High School Student Council Revises Honor Roll

HHS Student Council did many things this year, with George Taylor serving as President. The Council sponsored the Homecoming parade and dance featuring Chrome, revised the honor roll and sponsored the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Also on the agenda were various topics such as what should be done with money from athletic events, why certain groups can't be allotted more money, and disputes between students and teachers.

FBLA Makes Mobiles for Shutins

The Future Business Leaders of America club this year has been involved in making service projects and fund raising projects.

They raised money for activities, the club had a car wash in October. Then in December they made candy dishes out of crystalized ash-trays, and sold them for Christmas gifts.

The club, in December, made mobiles for the shut-ins in the community.

They also had a Christmas party at Chris Slattery's home which included a pot-luck dinner and Christmas Caroling afterwards.

In May they held their annual picnic at Defiance and the Seniors were given their pins.

Girls work on their projects for the shut-ins.

OEA stands for Office Educational Association, and it is a national youth organization for business and office education students. Their national convention was in Chicago, May 2, 3, and 4. The state convention was held at Columbus and the Region 6 contest was held at Bowling Green State University. Dawn Dietz and Shirley Haase entered 4 County contest on February 9, 1975.

Their project for the year in leadership was "Spirit of '76 of OEA." OEA will be ten years old in 1976.

VICA stands for Vocational Industry of America. It consists of many different clubs and groups. Some of the main ones are Junior and Senior Cosmetology, Auto Body, Commercial Art, Junior and Senior Health Occupations.

Twyla Wonderly, a senior this year in cosmetology, reigned as VICA Queen. She also was second runner up in the regional contest.

The club members attended state convention April 18, 19. The purpose of this convention was to help them learn leadership and to learn how to become better citizens.

FFA (Future Farmers of America) had an exciting year as they participated in many events and fared well.

In the tractor trouble shooting contest they were champs in the District and eighth in the State.

March 17, was the car rodeo which lasted three days. This rodeo consisted of a written test, show of skills, and three obstacle courses. The skills contest had 130 students participating in agricultural mechanics within the 4 Co. School only.

Fifteen students were sent to state convention April 26. Finally the Annual Banquet was April 29.

Schools Rely on Behind-the-Scenes Personnel

Shirley Hirsch, Jean Bergman and Ruth Timbrook prepare the meals for the senior high and high school students.

Arden Bauer, high school custodian, keeps busy managing the school.

Elementary school custodian Dan Fogle pauses during preparations to begin cleaning.

Grade school cooks are Emma Morhart, Ann Wattenberger, Barbara Thies, Florence Runtz, Pauline Haver, and manager of both school cafeterias.

School bus drivers are: FRONT ROW: Jackie Zeedyk, Mary Minnig, Ethelinda Schliesser, Lenora Levy. BACK ROW: Craze Green, Denver Zeedyk and Kenneth Steiner.

Ralph Morhart drives the bus for 4-County Vocational School students.

"Like Columbus in the olden days. We must gather all our courage. Sail our ships out on the open sea. Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go."

Marina Ariza Herrera was an exchange student throughout the 1974-75 school year. Marina was born in Barranquilla, Columbia. She is 19 and a senior. Her father (deceased) was a doctor and her mother is a teacher.

Marina likes Hicksville High School but feels the classes are more formal compared to those in Columbia. For example, the students are allowed to smoke during class in Columbia. She was surprised to find the dances here less formal and the music much different from the classical music back home. Marina thinks that the sports are the same in Columbia as they are here. She enjoys the American movies and feels that some of them have good themes.

Marina thinks that the people are different, especially in their customs. She said that she likes the people and that they are friendly.

Students Learn to Express Talents

This year's art classes were divided into two classes Art One and Art Two or Advanced Art

Art One learned the basic skills of painting, ceramics, drawing and three dimensional work

Advanced art did work in painting, ceramics, drawing and three dimensional work in greater depth as well as styrofoam molds

They also made football helmets which they sold

Junior High Art students learned to use art tools as they worked in the areas of painting, ceramics, and printing

Many business courses were offered to prepare students for the business world. Typing I, II, general business, steno, clerical records, bookkeeping, office practice, and business math were the main business courses offered.

Such things as business letters, tabulated reports, and commercial forms were practiced in Typing I, II. Speed and accuracy were stressed to be attained.

General business gave students an introduction to business. The fundamentals of bookkeeping and business practices were emphasized.

Clerical records equipped students with basic vocational skills common to office jobs involving record keeping.

Dictation and transcription along with reading, plus the principles of shorthand were stressed in steno.

Double entry bookkeeping and practice in simple accounting for single proprietorship and partnership were taught in bookkeeping class. It developed skills necessary in the business field.

Business math provided arithmetic essential in most areas of business and in one's own personal affairs.

Knowledge and skill in the use of various office machines, office procedures and filing were taught in office practice. During the year students worked for teachers and the office to give them experience in the office.

All business courses gave students good practice for working in the business fields after graduation.

English Reveals Many Expressions

HHS English Administration last year put together a successful English program. There were numerous subjects or courses to choose from. Mark Twain, Mythology, Science Fiction, and Shakespearean Comedy were just a few of the courses offered.

Mrs. M. Adams, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Redden, Mrs. Rohrs, and Mrs. Whitacre used an informal type of class to relate better with the students. Though most of the courses were literature, grammar was being taught through the writing assignments. This type of class enlightened the students' outlook of learning.

HHS English department also encouraged students to become involved in the literary contests involving poetry, short stories and other writing abilities.

A literary magazine including original works of Hicksville students was published by the department in May.

Jim Husted, as Mercutio, dies in a scene from Romeo and Juliet.

Paul Greutman and Wendy Pearson discuss the plans for a play.

Mrs. Whittacre helps Carol Tonneas in her independent classical novel class.

Spanish, Latin Students Find

Spanish I students learned about the language and culture. Students learned Spanish by playing Spanish games, learning the culture by collecting items, and reading books about Spanish-speaking countries.

Spanish II students continued to learn grammar and vocabulary. Latin American cultures were studied, and students improved their speaking skills by performing skits in Spanish.

Spanish III students continued to increase their vocabularies and fluency. During the year they gave talks in Spanish, published a Spanish newspaper, and presented travel brochures for Spanish-speaking countries. Spanish history was studied.

Music Program Begins in Elementary

In 5th grade, the students were tested for musical ability, for rhythm, and harmony, and were able to choose which instrument they wanted to play. During the beginner's period they had a test trial for 8-12 weeks and if a student was good enough Mr. Dull would place him in the 6th grade Cadet Band. Throughout the year the students learned fingering's and how to read music.

The Cadet Band had rehearsal once a week, and individual lessons once a week. They worked on improving their skills to play and read music. They also had two public concerts.

Junior High Band started in June. They learned to march and to follow marching instructions. During the school year they had band 2 mods — 3 days a week and 3 mods — 2 days a week.

High School band included Marching, Pep, Concert, and Stage Band.

Marching Band practiced twice a week in June and July. In June, the Majorettes were required to go to twirling Camp for a week. Then in August, Band Camp was held for a week in which the band prepared for the Delance County Fair. During school, Marching Band practiced three mods each day of the week.

In 4th grade the students learned to play flute-o-phones from Mr. Junk's instructor.

The 5th grade had a mixed choir and participated in two concerts. They learned how to read music and the scales.

The 6th grade had a mixed choir and girls' choir. They too, participated, in concerts and the Girls' Choir sang at the Grace Methodist Church and at Trinity United Methodist Church. They worked mainly on reading music throughout the year.

The Junior High Choir consisted of both a mixed and girl choir. They also sang at the Grace Methodist Church and at the Trinity United Church and also presented a Spring Assembly for the elementary school last year. They improved their ability to read music and learned to sing a variety of different songs.

The High School Choir also consisted of a mixed and Girls' Choir. They too, sang at the Grace Methodist Church and Trinity United Church and also the Catholic Church. They presented two concerts, which were open to the public and some of the students participated in the Solo Contest.

Mr. Lee Peters and Mr. Lee Peters are working on a project.

General math was a review of addition, subtraction, division, and multiplication through story problems. It was also an introduction to the basics of Algebra I.

In Algebra I, was a study of algebraic symbols, formulas, simple equations, geometric applications and ratio and proportions was taught to the students.

Second year algebra was an extension of Algebra I which presented the student with more complicated problems.

Geometry trained students in habits of expressing thoughts accurately and of reasoning correctly.

In trigonometry and analytic geometry, students worked with triangles and applied algebraic reasoning to geometric forms.

Students Become Involved in Social Studies

Social studies consisted of civics, geography and history. The instructors were Mr. George Cherry, Mr. Tom Hallett, Mr. Randy Hardy, and Mr. William Metz.

In civics the students were asked to prepare a term paper. The paper was to be at least eight pages long and on some function of government.

Junior high history prepared a project on anything in Ohio's past history. The students were given the last weeks of school to accomplish their project.

During the year American history turned in reports and worked on a civil war project. The students were also allowed to do independent studies.

In world history the students were asked to prepare a term paper on some event or part of history. The reports were to be eight pages long.

Geography consisted of the intense study of charts and maps. They also studied the environment of these places.

During the second semester, students in world history played a simulation game of the French Revolution. It started two years before with Louis XVI as king and continued until two years after.

During the course of the game, the students enacted Louis XVI and other heads of state and peasants. The peasants went through the real suffering of loss of land, money, property, and sometimes, heads.

After the revolutions, they had the trial of the heads of state and Louis and his court were guillotined.

The game ended with Napoleon coming to power with support of the peasants.

Mr. Hardy is amused at Denise Thompson as they stand in front of a taping a simulated French Revolution.

The class starts with Mr. Hardy lectures.

Dissection of Dogs, Field Trips

Eighth graders took general science which was used to give them an idea of the many fields of science.

High school students had a choice of biology, chemistry and physics.

Biology consisted of the study of living organisms, such as plants and animals.

Chemistry consisted of the study of the composition, properties of substances and how they reacted when mixed.

Physics consisted of the study of matter and energy.

The teachers that helped these students find and perfect their interests were Mr. Jerry Balser, Mr. Edwin Kaltenbach, and Mrs. Pat Miller.

Among the activities last year were a trip to Chicago for the physics class, and field trips in the area around Hicksville for the general science. The general science class also sponsored a trip to the Museum of Science in Toledo.

Boys Learn Basic Kitchen Skills

8th Grade Home Ec. was a semester course which included the basic skills of home making.

Home Ec. I was a study of personal, home and family life. The student acquired knowledge and skills on an introductory level as it related to the individual.

Home Ec. II was a continued study of personal home and family life. Attention was focused on the family as a group. Occupational preparations using the knowledge and skills of home making were related.

There was an open sewing lab during the last quarter. Students who desired to sew during their study halls could use the equipment and supplies. Mrs. Pat Miller offered instructions but students were allowed freedom of choice as to pattern and materials.

Bachelor Living, offered to boys only, was a study of consumer education, laundry, pressing, mending clothes, machine sewing, basic nutrition, and basic cooking skills.

Janie Hayes checks to see if her clothes are dry.

Cooperation is an important factor in Home Ec.

Students Develop New Skills in Drivers' Training

Bruce Essex and Scott Peters decorate the bulletin boards with important road signs.

Ken Boyce explains the meaning of a road sign to Rob Thornburg.

Drivers' education students, under the instruction of Mr. George Cherry, participated in actual driving experiences.

Drivers' education was a semester course, offered both semesters and during the summer. Ohio driving laws and safety rules were taught.

Various class activities included going down town to observe traffic violations and preparing a notebook. The notebook consisted of homework papers and newspaper clippings about car accidents.

Parallel parking was done on Saturday mornings this year, providing the students with more time to drive during class. Also, in this way, the instructor was able to devote extra time to students needing it.

Calisthenics are a daily part of physical education.

Under the instruction of a new health teacher, Mr. George Cherry, the freshman students studied the physical structure of the human body and how it works.

Basic health habits and personalities were studied in group discussions. Film strips were used along with the book to provide visual aid.

Physical education students learned new skills in class this year. Among those were table tennis, badminton and shuffleboard.

Other various activities included volley ball, calisthenics, basketball, speedball, and tumbling.

Calisthenics was strongly stressed by advisors, Mr. Scott Cromwell, Mrs. Jean Siler, and Miss Cheryl Ester.
